Expanded Titles and Descriptions

August 5 - "Humility leads to strength and not to weakness. It is the highest form of self respect to admit mistakes and to make amends for them." - John J McCloy

August 12 - Prof. Marc Pratarelli will explore education and morality. What do kids really learn in school?

August 19 - Christine Alonzo, member of the Pueblo Human Relations Commission, will talk about issues of great concern.

August 26 - Rev. Claire Zilm will tell us stories. We will determine what truths these stories evoke in us.

Social Activities

The Happy Bookers will lunch at the D.C's on B St. café, 115 W B St., on Wednesday, August 1st at 1130 a.m. This cafe is ranked number 22 of 183 restaurants in Pueblo.

On Wednesday, August 15th at 10 a.m., The Bookers will meet at the Church to discuss The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks, by Rebecca Sloat. You can get it on-line and delivered for approx. $10.00. There also are copies at the Library.

Newcomers are welcome. Questions, call Dorie at 719-566-8604.

Fellowship Breakfast - On Friday, August 10 at 9:00 a.m., we will gather for good food and conversation at B St Café, 121 W. B St. Come and get acquainted!

Movie Night - August 25th - Potluck: 5:00 p.m., Movie at 6:30 - August's movie is "The Secret World of Arrietty". A tiny, but tenacious 14 year old lives with her parents in the recesses of a suburban garden, unbeknownst to the home owner and her housekeeper. The movie is visually lush and anchored with soulful depth. Rated "G". Animated, and is 94 minutes.

August 26 - Ice cream will be served after the service.

Work Week August 13-18

We will have workers who need to fulfill Community Service time to help us with prepping and painting the kitchen, bathrooms, old office, and painted wood doors. We expect the task will take at least 4 days, and we will need 2-3 members to be there during this time. We ask you to sign up as you're able, see Rita, Dan or Don for questions.

Our New Name...

On Sunday, July 22, a congregational meeting was convened to vote on selection of a new name for UUCP. We selected First Unitarian Society, and will now be working on the mechanics of implementing this change.

About the UU Church of Pueblo

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Pueblo is affiliated with the Unitarian Universalist Association. The religious organization is non-creedal and encourages free inquiry and exploration of ideas; members are not required to share the same beliefs. Members have come from a variety of backgrounds including lifelong UUs, Humanists, Christians, Jews, Muslims, Wiccans, Buddhists, agnostics, atheists, and others. The Pueblo UU Church welcomes gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered persons. For more information, see www.uupueblo.org and www.uua.org. If you would like to subscribe or unsubscribe to this newsletter, please contact uucop@juno.com or leave a message at 719.561.0880. Our facility is handicap accessible.

There are 7 Unitarian Universalist Principles that we affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
2. Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
7. Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
